Pop-Up Cookie Booth Sales:

In order to give an opportunity to the Girl Scouts who continue to strive for their personal goals, we allow one (1) parent/guardian and a maximum of two (2) daughters (must be from the same household) to host a cookie booth on their property. In order to participate in a Pop-Up Cookie Booth, the following conditions must be met:

Guidelines:

- Adults must sign the Pop-Up Cookie Booth Agreement and submit this signed agreement to their Troop Leader who will then forward to the Service Unit Cookie Booth Coordinator.
- No other persons may be present at the Pop-Up Cookie Booth, including non-Girl Scout siblings.
- The parent/guardian is financially responsible for all cookies and money in their daughter's possession. Troop Leaders should ensure that they received a signed Girl Permission Form for every girl selling in her troop.
- Girls and parent/guardians selling must stay at the booth at all times.
- Girls should be identifiable as a Girl Scout.
- Each girl/parent is responsible for providing cash for change and a container to keep it safe.
- Parent/Guardian will provide their own supplies such as tables, signage, chairs, etc.
- Avoid eating, drinking and chewing gum.
- Bring lots of smiles, good manners, and a polite voice. Say "please" and "thank you" and be considerate of your neighbors.
- Protect the cookies. Keep them out of direct sun and dampness and do not leave them unsupervised.
- Count cookies and money at the beginning and end of the pop-up cookie booth to make sure you balance.
- Remember, only girls sell Girl Scout cookies.
